

Report title: Characteristics of [plant name] and it's habitat

Sections to include:

- its habitat/ environment - Name of the habitat and a clear description of its environment e.g type of soil, amount of water available, temperature of that place, amount of rain, availability of light and wind etc
- physical characteristics and special features of that plant
- how physical features allow the plant to adapt/survive
- measures taken by communities to protect/ preserve this habitat, OR what sensible actions communities can/ should take to protect/ preserve this habitat to ensure the plant's survival. (collective responsibility: he waka eke noa)

Remember to include conventions of a science report

- correct scientific terms
- subtitles to allow reader to identify each section
- diagrams/ pictures (as appropriate)
- clear explanations with accurate punctuation, spelling and grammar.

Citation

List your sources here (website links, book title and author name, name of people interviewed and date of interview)