

1. List all the different measuring devices used by your family and what do they use it for?

2. List different measuring devices used by different cultures, societies and different periods of history.

3. Give the correct units for the following eg mm, cm, lt, ml

- a) Estimate the length of a foot. _____
- b) Measure the length of the foot. _____
- c) Estimate the width of a foot. _____
- d) Measure the width of the foot. _____
- e) Compare the length and the width and what do you find out?

- f) Estimate the width of a little finger. _____
- g) Measure the width of the little finger. _____
- h) Estimate the length of a thumb. _____
- i) Measure the length of the thumb. _____
- j) Estimate the length of a white board _____
- k) Measure the length of the white board _____
- l) How many white board lengths can you fit in a kilometre?

- m) Measure the liquid given in a jar. _____
- n) Measure the mass of a book. _____
- o) Measure the mass of a pencil. _____
- p) Weigh yourself on a weighing scale and estimate your weight in another 3 year's time. My weight today _____ My weight after three years _____

- q) Read the temperatures given on a thermometer. The lowest temperature _____ and the highest temperature _____
- r) Measure the sides of the given shapes and calculate the perimeter and the area.