

Weekly Quiz

1. Which mountain's volcanic alert level has recently been moved up to Level 2?
 - a. Mt Tarawera
 - b. Mt Ruapehu
 - c. Mt Taranaki
2. A Ukrainian girl has become well known worldwide for her singing in a bomb shelter in Ukraine. What song did she sing?
 - a. Know Who You Are (Moana)
 - b. Part of Your World (The Little Mermaid)
 - c. Let it Go (Frozen)
3. Which world number one tennis player announced their retirement last week?
 - a. Rafael Nadal
 - b. Naomi Osaka
 - c. Ash Barty
4. Which of the following COVID-19 restrictions will still be required in the changed Red traffic light setting?
 - a. Indoor mask wearing in most situations
 - b. Vaccine passes
 - c. Scanning in
5. Boris Johnson has been criticised for receiving important political information via ...?
 - a. Instagram
 - b. Facebook
 - c. WhatsApp
6. What has been rescued from a zoo in Ukraine following a four day rescue mission?
 - a. A lion and a wolf
 - b. A bear and a chimpanzee
 - c. An otter and a 10 metre long python
7. Which of the following areas declared a state of emergency last week due to flooding?
 - a. Canterbury
 - b. Tairāwhiti
 - c. Southland
8. What are people in the UK no longer able to buy?
 - a. Free-range eggs
 - b. Soy Milk
 - c. Stick vacuum cleaners
9. Which festival, that normally attracts more than 90,000 people, was held without a crowd for the first time in its 46-year history?
 - a. WOMAD
 - b. Polyfest
 - c. New Zealand's International Comedy Festival
10. What did New Zealand dairy giant Fonterra announce last week?
 - a. Its highest ever payout to farmers
 - b. It will exit its businesses in Russia
 - c. It is building three new dairy factories
11. Which country has been named the happiest country the world in a United Nations survey?
 - a. New Zealand
 - b. Finland
 - c. France
12. New Zealand has entered a deal to accept 150 refugees that are currently being held in offshore detention centres, by which country?
 - a. Australia
 - b. UK
 - c. Germany
13. The SailGP will finally be coming to New Zealand in 2023 after years of cancelled regattas. Where will the first event be held?
 - a. Christchurch
 - b. Tauranga
 - c. Auckland
14. Russian cosmonauts recently boarded the International Space Station wearing ...?
 - a. Vladimir Putin t.shirts
 - b. Ukrainian flag colours
 - c. Darth Vader costumes
15. What is different about this year's winner of New Zealand's best hot cross bun?
 - a. It is chocolate flavoured
 - b. It has peanut butter in the centre
 - c. It is made with sourdough

Weekly Quiz - Visual

In which European capital city has work like this been done recently?
a. London
b. Kyiv
c. Moscow

1

2

What natural event was responsible for scenes like this in several southern states of America last week?

3

This bridge has just celebrated a milestone anniversary. In which major world city is it located?

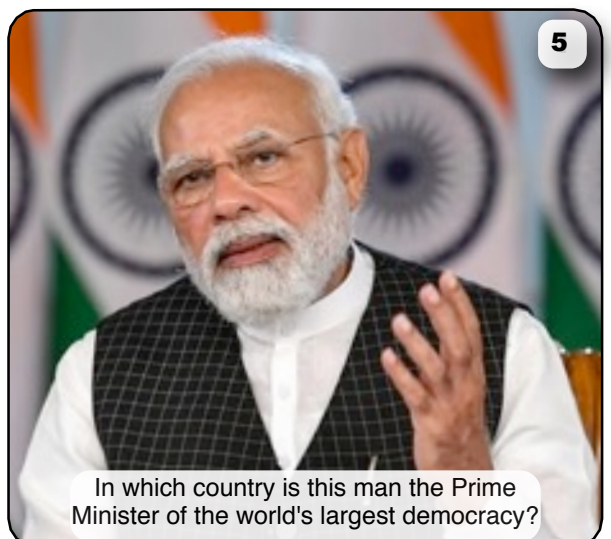

4

Which country has this flag?

5

In which country is this man the Prime Minister of the world's largest democracy?