

His Majesty The King
Buckingham Palace
London SW1A 1AA

Good day Sir,

It is an honour and a privilege to be writing to you today. I hope this letter reaches you well. I would like to wish you my sincerest congratulations on your impending coronation. How exciting it must be! I am thrilled to have the opportunity to watch your coronation and serve underneath you as a member of the commonwealth. I am writing from New Zealand, a country which I can only hope will be graced with your presence in the coming years. I would also like to offer you my condolences. It must be difficult to lose a mother, even one who lived such a long and fulfilling life, and I imagine your grief will cast a shadow on your new throne. My well wishes to you, Sir. I know you will be as strong as your many people are. May your reign be long and prosperous.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your Majesty's humble and obedient servant,
