

Part 3: Template for Speeches

Name:

Topic:

Purpose:

Paragraph 1: Introduction
A) Attention-Getter/Hook: A statement/ sentence that gains attention and makes your audience sit up and listen You could use a: Quote/Joke/Fact/Joke/Story /An imagine scenario...	Write paragraph here...
B) Bond: Link-to Audience: Identify a personal connection in the audience's life - say why your topic is important to you and/or your audience
c) Explain your Map to your Destination : Speech Preview: Briefly outline what you will cover in your speech. A bit like a trailer for a new film or the thesis to an essay
Body Paragraphs: 2,3,4
The body of your speech is where the detail is found, it is the three main points from your research template, each point is its own paragraph
a) Paragraph 2 (Point #1)	Each body paragraph should include: Transitional sentence to first point,Joining sentence...this is how you move from one section or point to the next. It is a linking idea You could say ... "Let's begin by ...", "Let's start with ..." or I prefer "Let's consider ... Your point

	The reason The example/ supporting evidence Restate the point Transitional sentence to your next point Paragraph here:
b) Paragraph 3 (Point #2)	Your point The reason The example/ supporting evidence Restate the point Transitional sentence to your next point Paragraph here:
c) Paragraph 4 (Point #3)	Your point The reason The example/ supporting evidence Restate the point Transitional sentence to your next point Create a linking statement to the Conclusion, eg "Let's summarise ..." or "Can we consider these main points ..." Paragraph here:
Paragraph 5: Writing Your Conclusion
"Tell them what you have told them"
a) Restate your idea: possibly point out why your idea is so important b) Restate main points: show how the evidence you have given proves your point c) Call-to-Action or a message to leave your audience with	Write paragraph here...

"I encourage you to ...", "Let's all contribute ...", "... sign now ...", "make a decision now to be involved ..." "now that you know all about this I hope you will..."
--	--