

Sample Conclusion

Question

Describe an important relationship in the text. Explain how this relationship is relevant to young people today

Question rephrased

Finally the relationship between Romeo and Polly is relevant to young people as it gives them hope. Polly is a symbol of hope for Romeo and through her the director is able to develop the key message that even in our darkest of moments there is a glimmer of hope if we choose to believe. This idea is reinforced through the use of verbal and visual techniques.

Part 2 of Q in 1 sentence

Mention techniques you used