Who is in your family?

Task description: In this assessment students will prepare a presentation with the following information:

Your introduction should include the following information:

1. A greeting to the recipients
2. Your:
   - Name
   - Age
   - Birthday
   - Nationality
   - Where you live
   - How many languages you speak.
3. Description of how many people there are in your family and who are they (mother, father, brother etc)

4. Mention their names and age.
5. A photo of your family (this has to be a real photo of your family or a fake one, BUT the description has to match up with the photo you are including)

Assessment Conditions
The script and the presentation has to be done in class time only

Student Checklist
- ☐ My assessment has the photo
- ☐ I have included information from the five criteria listed above.
- ☐ I have include details such as names and ages.
- ☐ Before I upload my assessment: I have checked the marking schedule

Students will demonstrate their ability to write a text in basic Spanish on a familiar topic.

Criteria	Working Towards	AT	ABOVE	BEYOND
Oral Communication	You have yet to communicate about your whānau/family in Spanish	You communicated your descriptions about your whānau/family in Spanish with some inconsistencies and/or errors	You convincingly communicated your descriptions about your whānau/family in Spanish with new inconsistencies and/or errors	You have communicated a harmonious and well controlled presentation in Spanish about your whānau/family with minimal errors

Spanish vocabulary	You have included minimal detail or the correct vocabulary in the descriptions	You have used some detail and vocabulary to support some of the descriptions	You have used a variety of vocabulary and detail to support most of the descriptions	You have used a variety of vocabulary and detail to support all the descriptions
Time management	You have not handed your assessment in.	You have handed in your assessment late.	You have submitted your assignment on time (19th May)	You have submitted your assignment on time (19th May)
Overall grade				