

8F2 Global Studies

Term 1 Week 7

Don't miss me too much!

I am hanging out with Year 7 at camp so I won't see you again until next week.

We have finished talking about the Tangiwai disaster and we are revisiting our learning on Marine Reserves plus....

getting into some mapping skills

Term 1: Week 7

1 | Wednesday

- Google Classroom, complete and submit your current events from 8/03
- Read or listen to the School Journal article on Marine Reserves. p32
- Complete Marine Reserves writing task in your book (Next slide)

2 | Thursday

- Complete the World Map quiz in small groups
- Label your own World Map
- Have a go at the Online World Map quiz (Link on slide 5)

3 | Friday

- Read the School Journal article on He Rahui p21
- Write a paragraph, in your own words, explaining what Rahui means. Complete this in your book.
- NZ map time (see slide 6)

Wednesday's writing task after reading the article on page 32.

Wednesday 13 March
Marine Reserves.

In the past....(what happened when we had no
marine reserves?)

In the present....(what are we trying to do now?)

In the future....(what are we hoping for the future?)

Thursday's online quiz

Click on the link below.

You have 15 minutes to type in the names of as many countries as you can. I got 58. Can you beat me? Try for 5 minutes by yourself then you can share an atlas for the last 10 minutes.

Friday's mapping task

1. With your ruler! Draw a frame around the edge of your NZ map page
2. Using the atlas, name 2 oceans, 2 straits and our main islands.
3. Research regions of NZ online. See if you can neatly label each one on your map.
4. Trim and glue it in your book.

Well that was a busy week! Hope you managed to keep up with all those tasks.

Don't forget to keep up to date with Current Events by watching the news or reading online.

See you all next week.
