

English
Term 1
Week 4

This week you will:

Integrate sources of information, processes, and strategies confidently to identify, form, and express ideas.

Indicators:

- create a text by integrating sources of information and processing strategies with increasing confidence
- seek feedback and make changes to a text to improve clarity, meaning, and effect
- be reflective about the production of your own text

Complete your Reading Plus tasks online

Read, read, read!

Aim to read every day for at least 30 minutes.

Think about adjectives that describe you. Make a list. These will be useful when we look at writing poetry about ourselves on Thursday.

Remember to attend your conference with your Learning Advisor on Friday!

Wednesday

Our Learning tasks today are:

- to review the key points from our friendship discussions last Friday.
- to add any new points to our writing plans
- to independently complete a writing sample in the booklet Mrs Lowden will give you

Early Finishers

Quietly collect your Visual Pepeha and continue with it

Thursday

Our Learning tasks today are:

- to discuss a poet's purpose
- to identify the poet's purpose by looking at a variety of poems
- to begin drafting a poem about yourself (to display with your pepeha art) using the framework

How do you write a bio poem about yourself?

A poem typically includes the following information:

- Adjectives that you would use to describe yourself.
- Relationships in your life (e.g., friend, brother, daughter)
- Things you love.
- Important memories.
- Fears.
- Accomplishments.
- Hopes or wishes.
- Home (location)
