

Please add speech topics from your learning area from Term 2 context only.
English	Global Studies	PEH
Malala Yousafzai: A Youth Leader		The effect of gender stereotyping on individual behaviour
Education makes you independent
Education gives you the power to question/challenge things
I have the right to sing. I have the right to go to market. I have the right to speak up. I will get my education —
No woman was mentioned. Only men were there. I took the pen, drew a line, and [wrote] 'Malala.'" — Ziauddin Yousafzai, on "Sometimes [my mother, Toorpekai] says, 'Don't shake hands with men. Look down, look down, don't look at men — it's a shame.'
Some people think, 'Malala is lucky — she's now with Hillary Clinton, she's with Bono, she's with rock stars.' But on the other side,
It is so hard to get things done in this world. You try and too often it doesn't work. But you have to continue. And you never give up.
Illegal Israeli settlements and the resulting confiscation and destruction of West Bank village land
An Olive Branch
Broken cameras are a symbol of oppression
In this lasting conflict, cameras are an important witness to suffering, but they also may be the cause of some of it."
"We want to sleep!"
Quote- Narrator:
Healing is a challenge in life. It's a victim sole obligation. By healing, you resist oppression. But when I'm hurt over and
Your I-phone is smeared in workers' blood
Big Products: Cheap Labour
Occupational leukemia
Global brands' social responsibility towards its workers
Consumers' role in promoting unethical work practices
Dangerous working conditions in China's smartphone factories
Human and environmental cost of the technology industry
I didn't dare tell my parents (about her irreparable nerve damage) ...I came out here to ease their burden, but the truth is, I have become their burden."
Global outsourcing
From the smartphones we swipe to the Fitbits we wear, what really happens along the supply chain?"
https://www.thegrowthfaculty.com/blog/favouritequotesfrommalala
Quotes from 'He Named Me Malala.' https://corporateaccountabilityproject.weblogs.anu.edu.au/2017/09/25/complicit-film-review/
Quotes from 'I am not your Negro' by James Baldwin
You don't know what's happening on the other side of the wall, because you don't want to know."
History is not the past. It is the present. We carry our history with us. We are our history. If we pretend otherwise, we are literally criminals.
Not everything that is faced can be changed; but nothing can be changed until it is faced.
It is not a racial problem. It is a problem of whether or not you're willing to look at your life and be responsible for it, and then begin to change it.
We've been here for four hundred years and now he tells us that maybe in forty years, if you're good, we may let you become President.
When the Israelis pick up guns, or the Poles, or the Irish, or any white man in the world says "give me liberty, or give me death," the entire white world
All I want is to be able to stand in front of my boy like my father never was able to do to me." — Raoul Peck
I am saying that a journey is called that because you cannot know what you will discover on the journey, what you will do with what you find,		