

The heartbreaking loss of innocence

The heartbreaking loss of innocence means knowing that there is a bad world out there other than the perfect picture that is in the mind of a person .

Events that shows the theme

In boy. When boy loses his innocence by, when his father hits him when he was wearing his jacket then he realizes that his dad is not the hero he was in boy's mind.

Techniques

Camera angle - mid shot

They use the mid shot because that can make viewer can see all main characters in the same time and the little detail on each characters also it can shows how the boys father pounce the boy that improve the movement.

Dialogue - question and answer

The way the character talk is one person ask a question first and others answer it.

How does this relate to society

This links to society by showing the problems that boy had i.e. drug abuse, alcohol, parenting issues, during his time because it was thought to be "normal".