

Paragraph Structure Options

SEXY • TEXAS • PEEL • PPDAC

S Statement sentence T opic Sentence P oint P roblem	State the point you are discussing for the whole paragraph. Key words from the question. What is the paragraph about?
E xplain E xplain E xplain P lan	Explaining the context of your topic. Give two or three facts about your topic to show that you know your stuff.
e xample / evidence e xample / evidence e xample / evidence D ata	Giving an example to illustrate the point that you have made. You might discuss a short case study, give a quote and discuss it, talk about key facts and figures. Any of these will do.
Y our opinion / Why is this important? A nalysis and S um up L inks A nalysis and C onclusion	Why? / So what? Why is this significant? What are the consequences? [wider world] Link back to your question/ statement sentence. End your paragraph by making a statement that supports what you have said in your paragraph. Show how all these things relate back to your point or your question. 